Cliff-Hangers

A cliff-hanger is a part of a story that leaves the reader in suspense about what will happen next.

Anne Ylvisaker started writing Little Klein when a friend asked her to send him a three-sentence cliff-hanger. She wrote about the Klein boys taking their raft to the river by the falls.

Write your own three-sentence cliff-hanger. Try to use these words in your sentences: twist, shadow, and wind.

Bonus activity: Exchange your sentences with a friend and write the next three sentences in each other's stories. Trade back and forth to create a surprising outcome.
