Book Club Questions

Start your very own Princess in Black book club! All you need are a few friends who like to read and a place to talk. Start by discussing the questions below and then add your own questions.

1. Why does Princess Magnolia need to keep her superhero identity a secret? What do you think would happen if someone discovered her secret?

2. The authors come up with funny names for a lot of their characters, such as Duchess Wigtower and Frimplepants. If you could name a character, what name would you choose?

3. How do you think the hole to Monster Land first appeared?

4. What kind of training do you think the Princess in Black needs so she can defend her kingdom from the monsters?

5. What are some similarities between the way Princess Magnolia and the Princess in Black behave? What are some differences?

6. Why do you think the duchess says that everyone knows princesses don’t wear black? Do you agree with her?
