Gustavo is good at doing all sorts of ghostly things, like walking through walls, making objects fly, and glowing in the dark. But he’s shy, and it’s hard for him to make friends with other monsters. With the Day of the Dead fast approaching, what can he do to overcome his shyness? Discover how Gustavo makes the other monsters notice him in Flavia Z. Drago’s sweet story of loneliness, bravery, and friendship, then enjoy these activities.
SPOT THE DIFFERENCE

Find six differences between the two pictures. Look carefully!

Illustrations © 2020 by Flavia Z. Drago

- bow tie
- tea bag
- position of camera and donut switched
- number of knitting needles
- color of cat
- number of picture frames

Answers: bow tie; tea bag; position of camera and donut switched.
Gustavo is shy, but he wishes more than anything for friends. Draw some monster friends for Gustavo in the space below.
Oh, no! Gustavo’s friends got lost on their way to his party.
Help them find their way through the maze to Gustavo.
When Gustavo plays his violin, he becomes so happy that he glows. Think about some things that make you “glow” with happiness and write about them on the lines below. Then draw a picture of yourself so happy that you’re glowing.

WHAT MAKES YOU GLOW?

________________________________________

________________________________________

________________________________________

________________________________________

Illustrations © 2020 by Flavia Z. Drago